Thank you for your response. However, it may be challenging to have a meaningful discussion without specific details. The ER nurses and physicians have urgent and significant concerns they wish to convey to the Board. Therefore, I would like to once again request a meeting to address these important matters.

Subject: Concerns Regarding Ambulance Service in Bond County

Dear Members of the Bond County Board,

I am writing to formally request a meeting — virtual or in person, whichever the Board prefers — to discuss serious and ongoing concerns regarding the quality of emergency medical services (EMS) currently available to residents of Bond County. As an emergency physician serving the residents of Bond County for 26 years and a native and former resident of Bond County, the current EMS services are unreliable and inconsistent with services provided in years past.

The following pose real risks to patient safety and deserve the Board's direct and immediate attention.

Specifically, I would like to bring the following issues to the Board's attention:

- Long transfer times: Patients requiring transfer to outside facilities for higher levels of care have experienced extended delays, in some cases far exceeding what should be clinically acceptable. These delays can directly affect patient outcomes, particularly in time-sensitive medical situations.
- Changing and unreliable ETAs: Estimated arrival times provided to facilities, families, and patients have frequently shifted without clear communication or explanation, making it difficult for receiving facilities and care teams to plan appropriately and for families to know what to expect.
- Insufficient ambulance coverage: There appear to be too few ambulances available to meet the county's needs at a given time, leaving gaps in coverage that put residents at risk during emergencies and routine transfers alike.
- Lack of priority-based dispatch for transfer cases: Transfer cases do not appear to be consistently assigned or dispatched based on clinical priority or acuity. This raises significant concern, as it suggests more urgent cases may not reliably receive faster response, while less urgent cases may unnecessarily tie up limited resources.

Taken together, these issues suggest systemic gaps in how EMS resources are allocated, dispatched, and managed across the county. I would appreciate the opportunity to discuss this with the Board directly, either at an in person meeting when I am in town or via a virtual meeting at the Board's convenience.

Thank you for your time and attention to this matter. I look forward to your response and to working together toward solutions that ensure Bond County residents receive timely, reliable, and well-coordinated emergency medical care.

Respectfully,

Michal M. Bond

Technical Framework - Intergovernmental Agreement

Greenville University Fiber Infrastructure Transfer

Description of Conveyed Fiber Infrastructure

Intent of Conveyance

It is the intent of the Parties that Greenville University convey to the Coalition all Greenville University-owned passive outside plant fiber optic facilities reasonably necessary for the continued operation of the conveyed fiber route identified on Exhibit A, unless specifically excluded by this Agreement or addressed in the Shared Facilities provisions of this Agreement.

The following inventory identifies the principal assets conveyed and shall not be interpreted to exclude incidental passive infrastructure associated with the transferred facilities.

1. Conveyed Fiber Route

The conveyed facilities are associated with the fiber route depicted on Exhibit A and generally described as follows:

Beginning at the existing handhole located at the northwest corner of College Avenue and Dewey Street, where the Greenville University fiber interconnects with the Illinois Century Network (ICN), the route proceeds West within the City of Greenville utility easement along the north side of College Avenue, then north within the City utility easement along the east side of Elm Street to approximately the midpoint between Oak and Durley Streets. The route then crosses west beneath Elm Street to the existing handhole adjacent to the Greenville University Data Center, where the conveyed fiber enters the building.

From that point, the route continues through Greenville University infrastructure to the Greenville University Data Center, then continues south through Greenville University infrastructure to the existing fiber handoff adjacent to the Whitlock Music Center where it interconnects with the Coalition-owned fiber.

The fiber route depicted on Exhibit A also identifies the Coalition's planned future bypass around the Greenville University campus. The bypass is shown for planning reference only and is not part of the assets conveyed under this Agreement.
